England's mourning garment; worn here by plain shepherds, in memory of their sacred mistress, Elizabeth; queen of virtue, while she lived; and theme of sorrow, being dead. To which is added the true manner of her imperial funeral: after which follows the Shepherd's spring-song, for entertainment of King James, our most potent sovereign. Dedicated to all that loved the deceased queen, and honour the living king. — London, by V. S. for Thomas Millington, and are to be sold at his shop under St. Peter's church in Cornhill, 1603.
